

	Proof of vaccination (vaccines authorised by the EMA *)	Compelling reason	Test requirements at embarkation	Test requirements on arrival	Quarantine measures
From a green-list country	✓	∅	∅	∅	∅
	I have not been vaccinated	∅	Negative PCR or antigen test < 72 hours ¹	∅	∅
¹ Negative PCR or antigenic test < 24h for countries under surveillance (Cyprus, Greece, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain).
	Proof of vaccination (vaccines authorised by the EMA *)	Compelling reason	Test requirements at embarkation	Test requirements on arrival	Quarantine measures
From an amber-list country	✓	∅	∅	∅	∅
	I have not been vaccinated	List of compelling reasons for travel to amber-list countries	Negative PCR < 72 hours or antigen test < 48 hours ²	Random antigen test	7 days' self-isolation
² PCR or antigenic test negative < 24h for the UK.
	Proof of vaccination (vaccines authorised by the EMA *)	Compelling reason	Test requirements at embarkation	Test requirements on arrival	Quarantine measures
From a red- list country	✓	∅	∅	∅	∅
	I have not been vaccinated	List of compelling reasons for travel to red-list countries	Negative PCR or antigen test < 48 hours	Mandatory antigen test	10 days' mandatory quarantine enforced by security forces

→ The arrangements relating to compelling reasons and quarantine that apply to vaccinated adults also apply to any minors travelling with them, whether vaccinated or not.

* The list of vaccines recognised by the EMA: Pfizer/Comirnaty, Moderna, AstraZeneca/Vaxzevria/Covishield, Janssen.

 The list with the strictest rules applies.

Courtesy translation for information only